

C-BTC Annual Update

April 2023 to March 2024

"That 'being cared for' feeling has changed a lot for me. [It made me feel] worthy of change and confident enough to make the changes."

One of C-BTC follow-up participants

10 communities across Canada have delivered Connections. As of March 2024, 107 participants have received Connections from certified facilitators.

 Current Phase

We've started recruiting participants from C-BTC for 6 month follow up.

Survey/Interview,
or Both

 $25 gift card (Walmart/Loblaw) for each, or $50 for both

Group
recruitment,
facilitation &
delivery skills

Organizational practice &
policy

Community capacity building & partnership

Discussion Topics

 [Click here For discussion Topics
From the Community of Practice](#)

 Annual Summary

41

Newly trained certified facilitators for Connections through the C-BTC initiative

36

People attended the community capacity
building / webinars

50

Certified facilitators attended 25 Community of Practice (CoP)
meetings

Promoting readiness for change in mothers
experiencing intimate partner violence (IPV)

- Trauma-Informed practice
- Motivational interviewing
- Stages of change

Unresolved Trauma: Impacts on the caregiving relationship and infant/early childhood mental health

- An attachment and trauma-informed views on transmission of trauma through relationships
- Discussion about the intergenerational prevention of transmission of trauma and violence

Have question(s)?

Please contact
gloria.lee@mothercraft.org

Connections for Breaking the Cycle of Violence (C-BTC)

Breaking the Cycle

